

Essex Winter Series – 2009 Season

Concert Date: February 8, 2009

Jeff Barnhart & the Northeast All Stars

Get ready for great jazz at the Essex Winter Series. Jeff Barnhart, a world-class musician, band leader and entertainer, will present a program that demonstrates the various styles of piano and their proponents that came into being during the period when jazz was developing (1890-1935). He also will discuss each notable pianist's influence on the changing scene. Assisting him will be the Northeast All Stars, a seven-piece band comprised of an equally outstanding group of musicians, all of whom are band leaders in their own right. This is a not-to-be-missed "history lesson" on the growth of jazz, America's unique contribution to the art of the world.
